LOCAL NEWS.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7:04 a. m. and sets at 4:43 p. m. High water at 6:40 a. m. and 6:51 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and colder tonight; Friday fair; fresh northwesterly winds.

Wedding at Falls Church.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Esther Hawhurst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hawhurst, to Mr. Walter Peyton Jerdone, of Orange Va., took place at the Presbyterian Church, Falls Church Va., on Wednesday at 12:30 p. m. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion by the young lady friends of the bride, members of the Kings Daughters of the church of which she is a member. The bride was attired in a gown of light green cloth trimmed with white applique and wore a large picture hat of white chiffon and carried a bouquet of brides roses. The maid of honor was Miss Mary K. Hawhurst, of Brooklyn N. Y., cousin of the bride, and was the only attendant. She wore a dress of light blue cloth and a white hat and carried white chrysanthemums. Mr. Francis Jerdone, of Orange, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers were Mr. George T. Mankin, Mr. Frank H. Eastman, of Falls Church, Mr. Henry Hawhurst and Mr. F. M. Church of Washington, D. C. Rev. R. A. Davidson, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and Miss Emma Albertson presided at the organ and rendered the wedding march from Lohengrin, with Mr. Kyall Albertson, violinist, as accompanist. Mr. and Mrs. Jerdone were the recipients of many valuable gifts. An informal collation was tendered the wedding party at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony, at the conclusion of which the bridal couple left for an extended wedding trip.

Corbitt-Ansley Wedding.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Craig Ansley, 813 Prince street, was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding last night when their eldest daughter, Miss Roberta Clifford Ansley, was married to Mr. Howard Corbitt, of Suffolk, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Frank J. Brooke, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. Berryman Green, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary of Virginia. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a handsome gown of white peau de soie, trimmed with white chiffon. Miss Annie Ansley, her sister, was the maid of honor, and Mrs. W. Albert Smoot, another sister, was the matron of honor. There were no bridesmaids, but there were four ribbon girls—Miss Calvin Bragg, of Richmond; Miss Caroline Lyons, of Charlottesville, and Misses Kate and Page Williams, of Orange. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Brutus Clay, of Atlanta, Ga., as best man. The parlor had been prettily decorated, and after the ceremony a reception was held to only the relatives and very intimate friends of the two families being recipients of invitations. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Corbitt left for a bridal tour. They will reside at Suffolk, where the bridegroom is a prominent lawyer.

Goings Acquitted.

The jury yesterday afternoon in the County Court, Judge Love presiding, in the case of William Goings, colored, charged with the murder of Millard R. Birch, returned a verdict of not guilty, and Goings was dismissed from custody. The case has been in progress in the County Court since Monday last. As has heretofore been stated in the Gazette, Millard R. Birch, the murdered man, while in Magruder's barroom, at Rosslyn, on the night of October 8, was struck on the head with some blunt instrument. He staggered and fell to the floor. He was conveyed in a wagon to the Georgetown University Hospital, where it was found that his skull was fractured on the left side of the head. He remained unconscious until the night of October 10, when he died. In the meantime Goings had offered a reward of $100 for his arrest. He was captured at Beverly, W. Va., October 25, and indicted by the grand jury in the county October 30.

Preparing for Electricity.

Many people read with satisfaction yesterday that the City Council at Tuesday night's meeting made preliminary movements for the introduction of incandescent lights into the city as well as electricity for motive power. The Mayor's message to Council and the resolution providing for these purposes were generally regarded as steps in the proper direction. As has recently been stated in the Gazette, the city is either unable or not inclined to meet this growing want, and the time has come when an opportunity should be afforded others who may desire to fill the long-felt want.

Policemen's Ball.

The ball at McBurney's Hall last night under the auspices of the Alexandria police force proved a very pleasant affair. The hall was crowded with the officers and their friends throughout the evening, and dancing was kept up until about 2 o'clock this morning. The music was excellent, and those having charge of the affair left nothing undone which could have added to the comfort of any who attended. During the evening Mayor Simpson and several other city officials visited the hall.

Thanksgiving Day.

Today was but partially observed as a holiday, the stores being open in the morning. Numbers took holiday, some during the entire day and others in the afternoon. Most of those who thus indulged themselves went on fishing or gunning trips. Religious services were held according to the announcements made in yesterday's Gazette. All government employees had holiday and the public and private schools were closed. The weather has been fair and cool.

Remains to be Shipped.

The remains of the late Mrs. Josephine Cassabone, who died at the Alexandria Hospital Tuesday night, will be shipped to Royer's Ford, Pa., her former home, tomorrow morning by Mr. Wm. Demaine, undertaker.

Personal.

Mr. Francis Addison Wedderburn and Miss Frances Williams Berry were married in Washington on Tuesday at St. Stephen's P. E. Church by Rev. Dr. Dudley.

Miss Helen Wood, Miss Edna Joyce and Miss Eleanor Miller left for Philadelphia yesterday to spend Thanksgiving week.

One of the candidates who is considered has considerable prospect of ultimately winning the position of U. S. Attorney for the District of Columbia is Mr. Morgan H. Beach, formerly of this city but now of Washington. He is at present temporarily employed in the Department of Justice and is a warm friend of Assistant Attorney General Hoyt, of whom he was a classmate at Yale. Mr. Beach is one of the brightest young lawyers at the District bar and is so recognized by that body.

Mrs. Robert Marshall of Baltimore is visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Mary Hoy is visiting Miss Nancy Humphries in Lynchburg.

Messrs. Thomas M. Shepherd and Charles B. Davis left yesterday for Rappahannock county, where they will hunt wild turkeys.

Mrs. J. R. Smoot left yesterday for Nelson county, her home where she will in future reside.

Miss Edith Ramsay is visiting Miss Ball in Richmond. Yesterday she was a guest at a card party given by Mrs. C. T. O'Ferrall.

Mrs. Bartlett Bolling, of Albemarle county, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Albert Stuart, on King street.

A Slim Docket.

There was but one case for trial in the Police Court this morning, that of a young man who gave his name as Frank Kelly, who had been arrested last night by Officers Nicholson and Garvey for being drunk and disorderly in the streets. The delinquent when brought before the Mayor this morning said he was a shipcarpenter from Baltimore; that he had been at work at Newport News, got drunk and was discharged. He took the train to Richmond late yesterday evening for Washington, became drunk on the train and for some unexplained reason left the cars here. The Mayor ordered that he be placed on a ferry boat and sent to Washington.

River Notes.

The work of rebuilding Mr. J. R. Zimmerman's coal wharf is progressing slowly, and it is expected that it will be several weeks before it is completed.

The cradle of the railway at the ship yard is being rebuilt, and will be put in thorough order upon which to haul out the larger vessels on the river if necessary.

The schooner Edith Verrill is being loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co. for Aquia creek.

Poisoning Dogs.

During the past few months a number of dogs have been poisoned in this city by some enemy or enemies to the canine creation. In some instances highly prized dogs have been victims, and in some cases animals which had been kept on their owners' premises were destroyed by people who evidently threw the poison over fences. A gentleman living on south Washington street had two dogs, which he greatly prized, poisoned yesterday.

Opening of the Antlers' Club.

The opening of the Antlers' Club, southeast corner of Prince and Royal streets, last night, was a very pleasant affair throughout. Large numbers of persons were present during the evening, all of whom were royally entertained by the hosts, H. Latham & Co. Oysters, the finest of the season, in all styles, daintily prepared salads and other edibles and wines and liquors were in evidence and greatly enjoyed.

Venerable Copy of the Gazette.

An esteemed subscriber in Prince William county in renewing his subscription to the Gazette, says he has always read the paper with interest and will be a life-long subscriber to it. He also sends a copy of the Gazette of Friday, May 5, 1820, the personal of which is exceedingly interesting.

Sutherland-Simpson Wedding.

Mr. John T. Sutherland and Miss Effie V. Simpson, daughter of Mr. Julian A. Simpson, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, on south Alfred street, at 8:30 o'clock last night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. S. Ewell of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Hearty Response.

The managers of the Alexandria Hospital today received many donations from the charitably-disposed portion of the community. The Children's Home, southwest corner of Duke and Royal streets, was also remembered, and numbers of people sent donations to that institution.

Jumped on a Ten-Penny Nail.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and one nail was thrust entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.

Sensational Selling in Hosiery.

About one year ago we announced a sale of an entire sample line of a German hosiery manufacturer. Since then we have endeavored to purchase another lot. They are here now. They go on sale this morning. Last year we closed the lot out in two days. This year the lot is twice as large, but the values are twice as good, and believe we'll close the 950 dozen out in two or three days. The ladies' hosiery run in a single size—36. They come in black, plain colors, and fancy; both plain and open work; cotton and silk. The men's and open work in 104 and 11. They come in black, black and fancy; plain and open work. The majority of these hosiery are actual 75c. and 50c. values; not one pair in the lot worth less than 35c. Every pair perfect and will be sacrificed as long as they last at, per pair, 25c.

For one day we offer 147 pieces of Embroidered Chiffon and Silk Mousseline All-overs, in all black and all white, white and black, and Persian effects. None worth less than $1.50 per yard and a majority are $3.00 values. Choice..... 98c

FRIDAY, NOV. 28,

Will Be Our Last

REMANT DAY

Till After Christmas.

And it will be the most interesting of the present season. We shall be too busy after this week to give our attention to remnants. And as every foot of shelf and counter and floor space is needed for the proper display of our magnificent stock of Gift Goods, which already surpasses anything heretofore attempted, we have decided to make short work of all remnants. To this end we have thoroughly ransacked every stock in the house and separated therefrom everything that savors of a remnant. Many an odd bit of silk, or ribbon, or velvet, or lace, &c., may be found which can be made use of for Christmas. Numerous odd pieces of china, bric-a-brac, cut glass, &c. Scores of useful lengths in dress goods—ends of the choicest fabrics—suitable for women's dresses, skirts, and waists and children's dresses, at half and less than half former prices. Wrap, Suit, Linen, Upholstery—in fact, every department in the house presents rare buying opportunities. With the remnants we will offer several bargain lots of goods—we never say "bargain" except on Friday—some of which were purchased for the occasion; others are goods reduced in price for one reason or another. A goodly collection of remnants of worthy goods in broad and immediate demand, at specially reduced prices—prices which should clear them out quickly and completely.
